Buckeyes Wallop Rockets

Ohio State Quintet Runs Wild in 64 to 10 Victory; Olsen's Chargers Roll Up 30 Baskets; Brown Leads Attack.

TOLEDO, OHIO, DEC. 7.—Hitting the networks from any portion of the floor with monotonous regularity, Ohio State opened its 1932-33 basket-ball season by administering a 64 to 10 trouncing to the University of Toledo Rockets, here Tuesday night.

Coach Olsen used his entire squad of 12 players and all but two of them crashed through with points, Brown and Hinchman collecting five baskets apiece. Brown also totaled two of the Bucks' four free throws and Colburn collected the other two in addition to three baskets.

The Buckeyes led at the half, 20 to 6 and scored 34 points in the Price Set

AN admission price of 55 cents has been set for all seats at the Ohio State-Ohio Wesleyan basket-ball game in the state fairgrounds coliseum Saturday night.

The price scale for other home games on the Buckeye schedule will not be determined until after a meeting of the athletic board probably early next week.

second half before Toledo could tally again.

Toledo was limited to three baskets, Joe Shank, guard, getting two of them late in the last half. Drake, a forward, connected for the other.

SCARLET IN THIRD VICTORY

Southern Foes Vanquished
By Score of 45 to 26
At Nashville.

NASHVILLE, TENN., DEC. 31.—Ohio State university opened its southern basket-ball invasion here Saturday night with an easy 45 to 26 victory over the Vanderbilt Commodores.

After both teams failed to sink a field goal within the first five minutes the Buckeyes started clicking on their long shots and with Hoskett and Beitner finding the hoop, crawled into a lead which they held the remainder of the game. The half ended with the Scarlet and Gray holding an advantage of 18 to 10.

Ohio State opened its fast-breaking offense with the start of the last half and dropped in baskets at will. Most of these shots were made from within the four line. The Commodores being dazzled by the speed and passing of the Scarlet-clad invaders.

Reserves Outscore Foe

When the Buckeye total reached 35 points, Coach Olsen sent in his reserves and they managed to outscore Vandy the rest of the way.

Wilson was high scorer for the Buckeye subs during the closing minutes of the game. Hinchman and Mattison with 13 and 12, tallies respectively led the scoring for Ohio State. The feature however was the splendid defensive work and pivot play of Bill Hoskett.

It was the third victory for the Buckeyes in four starts during the current season. The southern trip will be concluded Monday night when the Scarlet and Gray meets Kentucky University at Lexington.

Vaunted Kentucky Quintet
Almost Routed by Buckeyes; Hosket Finds Eye.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 2.—(AP)—Ohio State's smooth-breaking basket ball team took a fall out of the vaunted Kentucky Wildcats tonight and drubbed the blue grass quintet, 46 to 30. Led by Bill Hosket, who scored 15 points, the Ohioans looped the ball into the basket from all angles to crush the previously unbeaten southerners.

It was flashy work by Bobby Colburn which put the Scarlet and Gray out in front in the first half, after the score see-sawed until it was tied 7 to 7. Colburn, however, played so hard he was near exhaustion and was removed from the game.

Kentucky, when able to break through Ohio's defense, had scores of shots at the basket, but they failed to drop. Capt. Sale led the losers with 11 points.

Lew Hinchman and Hosket of Ohio State were ejected from the game on personal fouls. Hosket's ejection came late in the game when Ohio had doubled Kentucky's score. Demolsey, star Wildcat forward, began connecting at that point and saved Kentucky from utter rout.

A capacity crowd of 500 which filled all seats and standing room in the gymnasium witnessed the encounter, and an additional thousand prospective partons were turned away. With the Ohio victory, Kentucky's average of 50 points a game and a record of doubling the score against all opponents were broken.

Bernard Dickey, Hoosier three points, but Henry countered with two, giving the Bucks a one-point lead, the score being 27 to 28. Hinchman and Hosket then scored from afield, the former's coming after a long pass and a beautiful dribble.

Henry then popped the ball through the ring, scoring what proved to be the final Hoosier points. Brown's two free throws and Mattison's basket ended the encounter.

Hosket was the big point-getter for Ohio, with three baskets and four charity-flips to total 10. Bill controlled the tip-off most of the time.

Beitner and Mattison also played well for the Olsen-coached quintet, the latter blocking many attempted shots and retrieving the ball from the bankboard in fine fashion.

Colburn played his usual nice game and scored seven points. A crowd of 5378 viewed the game.

Scarlet And Gray Remain Undefeated

FOUR ON THE LONG END OF THE SCORING count.

Minnesota went into a tie for the only time in the game when Licht sank a long one to inaugurate the second stanza but with this gesture the enemy was through for the night.

Brown took a pass from Hinchman and rang the bell for two points and on the next play Robinson went out via the personal foul route. After this the enemy folded up like a tent. Brown picked himself off the tanbark after missing a dribble in attempt and scored in the ensuing mixup. Hinchman slipped away and took a pass almost the length of the floor from Hosket to ring up another goal and Hosket dropped in two successive goals from the pivot position. Hinchman made good on a charity toss before Anderson finally caged a free throw for the Gophers.

There was a momentary lull in which Hosket scored for Ohio and Wright tallied a free throw for the enemy before the Buckeyes went wild again. Beltner, Hosket and Wilson dropping three successive fielders to run the Buckeye total to 38 as against 22 for the enemy.

Then followed a flock of substitutes who battled on even terms for the rest of the way.

first period, blended perfectly with the other Scarlet and Gray regulars. The ex-football captain thrice scored from the field and gained his seventh point from the foul route. Brown, although scoring only one felder, played an exceptional floor game.

Ohio State's floor play and clever and accurate passing, especially that of Hosket's, were as important in victory as its sharpshooting.
The Buckeyes time after time obtained their objective with accurate passing which permitted a number of "set" shots in front of the Illini defense.

Illinois' scoring was divided between Bennett, Hellmich, Froschauer and Benyon with the first named leading the quartet with seven points, including three field goals.

Ohio State's defense performed creditably throughout the battle. It permitted the Illini to score four field goals in each period and tightened in a sensational manner once the visitors threatened in the final session.

ILLINOIS FOULS:

In the second period when eight of the 10 personal fouls were registered by Illinois, Ohio State added to its total by cashing in on six attempts, while the visitors were adding only two one-pointers.

In the final two minutes substitutes from both benches graced the floor with Ohio State still carrying on to marked superiority.

Victory last night over Illinois strongly indicates Ohio State, undefeated in three Big Ten games, is the quintet to beat if a rival school is hopeful of the 1933 championship. The game marked the final at-home contest for the Buckeyes until Army is met Feb. 11.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 20.—(AP)—Ohio State defeated Xavier University, 31 to 19, in a basket ball game here tonight after the Musketeers had held a lead of 3 to 2 for the first nine minutes. A record crowd, estimated at about 5000 persons, saw the contest.

Playing here for the first time, the Buckeye quintet gave the Musketeers plenty of fast action. Corbett, Xavier forward, and Mattison and Bettner of State were ejected for personal fouls.

LEAD AT HALF.

After making a slow start, the Buckeyes picked up momentum and ended the half with a 11 to 6 margin.

John Wiethe, forward, bore the burden of the Musketeers' attack, garnering 12 points. His four field goals were the only ones chalked up by Xavier.

Hoskett, center, was State's high scorer with 10 points, while Hinchman, Colburn and Beltner got five each.

Although the Musketeers were conceded little chance of defeating the Big Ten leaders, the Blue and White proved quite a surprise for the Buckeyes by their ability to remain within striking distance until the final five minutes.

This mostly was brought about by the all-round ability of "Little John" Wiethe, whose performance by far outshone all other individual efforts. He blocked many of Scarlet and Gray's shots.

EARLY LEAD.

Xavier got off to an early lead and at the end of the first nine minutes had a 3 to 2 advantage. The Musketeers matched everything the Buckeyes had to offer and, only through the lengthy frame of Wilmer (Bill) Hosket were the winners on the long end of an 11 to 6 margin at the half. The Buckeyes were slow in starting and wasted many scoring opportunities, only to brace as the game progressed and provide the Musketeers toughest opposition they probably will face this season.

Hosket, formerly of Dayton Stivers, played a great game in all departments, especially on offense, where his size accounted for four field goals. He also connected for two foul shots. Hosket experienced difficulty against Dan Corbett at center, for the Musketeer pivot man had the upstater extended at all times. Things took on a different complexion when Corbett was ejected, for the Musketeers soon found their offense faltering.

BUCKEYES SPURT.

The Buckeyes gradually pulled away from Xavier in the second half, during which the game grew speedier, although the losers managed to remain in the running until the final minutes. The upstater's greatest spurt came in the final five minutes, when Xavier missed numerous "bunny" shots, while the winners in turn were successful in the same department.

Scarlet Aggregation Hard Pressed To Maintain Narrow Advantage When Home Team Puts on Late Spurt.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., FEB. 4.—The rejuvenated University of Minnesota Gophers made a gallant effort to dethrone the Ohio State pacemakers here tonight, but after the firing had ceased, the Buckeyes were still on top of the Big Ten heap by virtue of their 24 to 23 victory over the home team.

The last 10 minutes of play produced about the wildest battling Minnesota fans have been privileged to see.

Leading at 23 to 18, the Buckeyes were forced to utilize that scoring advantage to pull out in front, for the Gophers put on a stirring finish that all but pulled the contest out of the fire.

Colburn, Hosket Lead

At the close of the first half Ohio State sported an 8 to 7 lead, scoring six of the points from the foul line as the Gophers guarded them closely.

At the start of the second half the Gophers were away with a burst as they slipped in front 9 to 8, then advanced to a 12 to 8 lead, but the Buckeyes soon regained their edge and never relinquished it thereafter.

To Colburn and Hosket went the scoring honors, but to Hinchman and Mattison belonged the defensive laurels.

Wright, returning to the Gopher lineup after being dropped earlier, shared with Robinson the distinction of being the best Gophers.

Picked to guard the brilliant Hinchman, Light did a fine job of it, holding the Buckeye star to one field goal and that in the first half. In the meantime Light scored nine points himself.

Colburn and Hosket Lead Scarlet and Gray Quintet to One-Point Triumph Over Badgers, Who Make Desperate Last-Minute Rally.

MADISON, Wis., Feb. 6.—(P)—Ohio State won its fifth consecutive Western Conference basket ball victory to-night by defeating Wisconsin, 31 to 30. The Badgers made a desperate last-minute spurt that netted three straight field goals but the timer's gun cut the rally short.

Ohio State was in the lead most of the game but Wisconsin came dangerously close at times. During the second half the contest was rough, although few fouls were called.

Colburn.

Colburn and Hosket led the Buckeye attack, the former flipping in four field goals and a free throw while Hosket caged five field goals and three free throws.

With little more than a minute to go and Ohio State leading 31 to 24, Poser and Hamann sank a pair of short field goals and Poser added a shot from the side to come within a point of a tie.

WISCONSIN GRABS LEAD AT START.

Poser opened the scoring with a medium field goal a few seconds after the first tipoff and added a free throw when fouled by Mattison to give the Badgers a three-to-nothing lead. Hosket sank the first basket for the Buckeyes shortly after when he eluded Hamann under the basket.

McDonald then added another free throw for Wisconsin on a foul by Hosket and Poser gave the Badgers a 6 to 2 lead by making two tries from the free throw line good after being fouled by Beitner.

The Buckeyes came to life when they saw the score board and in a sudden spurt made the score 10 to 6 in their favor. Beitner got the first with a medium shot from side court. Then Colburn tipped in Hinchman's try for a free throw. Hosket found the loop for a short one and Hinchman added two points from the free throw line.

McDonald pushed in a one-hand shot from near the free throw line and Poser dribbled through for a medium pot to tie the count at 10. Beitner and Hosket retaliated with long field goals and Colburn added a free throw to put the Buckeyes in a 15 to 10 lead. McDonald sank a free throw when pushed by Hinchman and two more when fouled by Beitner before Hosket closed the scoring for the half with a free throw on a foul by Hamann.

HOSKET VISITS BADGERS' BLEACHERS.

Hosket opened the second half with a short field goal but McDonald retaliated for Wisconsin. Colburn then sank a long one and Hosket scored on a tip in. Miller's long shot and Poser's free throw made the count 22 to 18 but Hosket added a free throw and Brown a tip in to let Ohio State again draw away. Hosket was shoved off the floor and into the bleachers by Hamann when he dribbled down a clear floor.

Hamann added a short field goal and Poser two free throws to make the count 25 to 22 but then the Buckeyes got down to work again and scored four points, Hosket and Hinchman by free throws and Colburn a field goal on a follow in shot. Smith kept the Badgers in the running with a short goal but Colburn duplicated it to make the count 31 to 24.

Then the Badgers made their last-minute rally that was cut short by the timer's gun. With the count 31 to 30, Ohio State took time out. When the game resumed there was a furious fight for possession of the ball, the Buckeyes winning out. Wilson had a chance to put the game on ice but he failed on a pot shot with no one within 20 feet of him.

OHIO STATE'S pace-setters in the Western Conference basket-ball race found West Point's Cadets easy pickings Saturday night at the Coliseum, and handed the embryo lieutenants a 41 to 25 drubbing in a game which was almost as bad as the score indicates.

Playing a lineup of assorted first and second stringers, Ohio State rode out of the first half on the long end of a 15 to 9 score, faltered momentarily at the start of the second stanza when Army spurred to advance to within two points of a tie and then scored 16 points while the visitors from the Plains were going scoreless.

Many Subs Used

The contest to all intents and purposes was over at this point but the rules required a full 20-minute half. Having no pity at all on the scorers, Coach Olsen ran in everyone on the bench whose name he could recall.

The only Buckeye of note who did not see action was Bill Hosket, the big center, who was kept on the bench because of an ankle injury. The Cadets plainly showed the effects of their enforced lay-off due to an influenza quarantine. Their work in fundamentals was ragged, while their team play showed only flashes of concerted action.

A crowd of 5528 fans sat in on the proceedings.

Jack Wilson, the red-headed forward from Cleveland Heights, led the Buckeyes in scoring with nine points and it was his deadly shooting that aided the Bucks on their 16-point splurge in the second half. Conrad, a vastly improved player at center, lapsed occasionally, but on the whole played creditable ball and came up with seven points. Hinchman played a good floor game although not up to his usual basket-making form, while Mattison and Beitner showed well at guard.

Epler Tallies Nine

The best of the numerous subs Olsen inserted into the picture was "Sucker" Low, Beitner's old teammate at Dover High.

For the Cadets, Neely, a smooth working forward, did the most effective floor work. Captain Epler, at center, tied Wilson for scoring honors with nine points but was outplayed by Conrad on the tip-off. Kenneth Kenerick, former Co-

St. Mary's Loses To Springfield Catholic

SPRINGFIELD, OHIO, FEB. 11.—Central Catholic high school of Springfield romped over the St. Mary's quintet of Columbus here Saturday night and emerged on the long end of the 28 to 17 score. The score was knotted at 5-all at the end of the first period, but the winners had forged ahead at halftime by a 17 to 18 margin.

The third quarter ended with the Springfield team leading 22 to 11. Winslow of the winner was high point man with 11 markers while Backald of St. Mary's scored six.

HOLY FAMILY WINS

Holy Family defeated Columbus Academy Saturday night at the K. of C. by a score of 19 to 16. Stuart of the winners and Krause of Academy each tallied eight points.

Baptist Cagers Finish on Short End of 41-40 Score Against Flyers.

GRANVILLE, OHIO, FEB. 11.—

What started out to be a romp ended in a firefought contest here tonight as Dayton nosed out Denison university, by a single point, 41 to 40.

Away to a flying start, the visitors had a 14 to 1 lead before the game was more than a few minutes old, but there Denison started an uphill fight that found them trailing only eight points, 20 to 12, at the half.

The count was knotted at 35-35 and again at 38-38.

lumbus Central athlete, showed up well at forward until relieved by Northam in the second half.

The first half was more interesting than the last. At one point the Cadets were on even terms but the Bucks had too many guns and each successive substitute seemed to add more power to the Scarlet attack. Mattison, Beitner and Colburn all played prominent parts in the Buckeye stampede, Colburn counting three baskets during his short stay in the lineup.

There were two comical occurrences to end an otherwise silly evening. Conrad committed four personal fouls but somebody missed it and he played the whole game. And the band played "Anchors Aweigh" between halves in honor of the Cadets.

Colburn and Beitner Register Successful Free Throws in Extra Period to Give Scarlet and Gray Its 12th Consecutive Victory.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 13.—(AP)—Ohio State's basketball forces clung to the lead in the Western Conference championship race tonight by defeating Illinois, 31 to 29, in a bitterly fought overtime battle. The victory was the Buckeyes' twelfth straight and their sixth in the Big Ten race.

Beitner.

Colburn.

Jack Beynon's field goal just before the gun ended the regular playing time gave Illinois a 28-all tie and in the overtime session Bobby Colburn dropped in two free throws and Bill Beitner got another, while Theobald scored Illinois' only point from the foul line.

The contest was rough, particularly in the first half, and Beynon, Froschauer and Beitner started the second period with three personal fouls against them.

Ohio State jumped into the lead in the first minute of play when Hosket scored two points on a short left-handed shot. The Buckeyes stayed in the lead throughout the first half, leading 19-14 at the end of the first session.

Hinchman Shoots Buckeyes Ahead.

Illinois rallied in the middle of the final period. Froschauer's fielder gave the home forces a 24-23 advantage, but Hinchman, with six minutes of play remaining, accounted for three points.

In the final minute Beitner missed a free throw and Beynon dashed through with a one-handed shot to even the score at 28 all and cause the overtime period.

Early in the extra period Beynon fouled Colburn, who cashed in two free chances. A double foul was called on Beynon and Beitner, with the Buckeye making his effort good while the Illini missed. In the final seconds Hinchman fouled Theobald to allow the latter to score his team's twenty-ninth point.

CAPTAIN

COACH WARD LAMBERT, of Purdue talked his basket-ball team right out of the picture Saturday night at the state fairgrounds Coliseum when Ohio State took a 28 to 27 victory before a throng of 8189 wild-eyed spectators.

Lambert's faux pas came in the last minute of play when he lost his head completely and dashed out on the floor to take a hand in the last minute wild battle.

Technical Foul Called

Ohio State was leading, 27 to 25 at the time and Norm Cottom, sensational Purdue forward was dribbling for what looked like an almost certain basket. Bill Beitner, Buckeye guard, sprinted in hot pursuit and deliberately fouled the Boilermaker forward.

The foul was called and Cottom was awarded two shots but this did not satisfy Lambert who rushed madly down the hard-wood. Just what he expected to accomplish was not ascertained. What he actually did do was to have a technical foul called against his team by Umpire Dave Reese.

Bobby Colburn was elected to try for the point and made it, the tally eventually deciding the ball game. To add a bit of irony to the situation, Mottom made good on both free throws awarded him as a result of Beitner's foul. Had Lambert kept quiet or had some cool-headed Purdue partisan succeeded in handcuffing him to the bench, the score would have been tied.

Score Tied Five Times

The game was one of the most bitterly fought of the season, although only 19 personal fouls were called. Hosket was the especial target, being guarded by two men all evening and being fouled three times in five minutes by Moore, a substitute guard, who entered late in the game.

The score was tied five times, four of the deadlocks occurring in the first half which found Ohio State on the long end of a 17 to 15 score. Purdue led on only one occasion, taking a 13 to 8 advantage midway of the first session.

This margin was short lived however. Beitner made good on a free throw and then popped in a long shot. Brown, who shared scoring honors with Fehring by making eight tallies in all, then sank two from the vicinity of the foul line and the Bucks were never headed again although deadlocked on two other occasions.

The Boilermakers exhibited a stubborn defense and it was not until late in the game that Ohio had anything resembling a pot shot. However, the Bucks were equally tenacious defensively and definitely superior to their Lafayette foemen on shots which required distance.

Hosket and Colburn made Ohio's only close-up baskets, the former breaking away from his escort on two occasions during the wild second half.

Parmenter was the deadliest long range gunner for the visitors, sinking two of this category. Fehring, who played effectively underneath both baskets, also scored three times from the field.

Cottom, Purdue's flashy sophomore forward, was limited to two goals from the field by Beitner but played a keen floor game as did Shaver and Parmenter. For Ohio State, Beitner and Brown were outstanding, the latter relieving Hinchman midway of the first half when the latter was charged with three fouls.

Ohio Unbeaten

Mattison, Beitner and Brown bore the brunt of the Ohio offense in the first half, each connecting for two baskets. Shaver and Parmenter were most effective for Purdue.

Immediately after the intermission, Cottom knotted the count with a follow shot but Brown sank a long one and Colburn a free throw. Wheeler caged two free throws but two goals by Hosket and one by Brown gave the Bucks a 26 to 19 edge, the largest margin held by either team.

Fehring then tossed a pair of goals for the Boilermakers and Hosket sank a foul to make it 27-23 before Parmenter plunked in a long one to set the stage for the last-minute uprising. Both teams missed numerous shots in the final seconds.

The victory enabled Ohio State to keep its Conference slate clean and marked their third victory in four starts by a margin of one point. The lineups:

Title Hopes Get Initial Setback

Victorious Iowans Lead All the Way In 37-29 Triumph—Winners Display
Keen Eye for Basket.

IOWA CITY, IOWA, FEB. 25.—(AP).—Ohio State's Western conference championship hopes suffered the first setback of the season at the hands of Iowa here Saturday night when the Buckeyes bowed to the Hawks, 37 to 29, before a crowd of more than 9000 persons.

Although the Buckeyes kept possession of the ball during at least half of the game the Hawkeyes were the "hot" team and could not be headed.

Iowa took the lead less than a minute after play had begun and managed to hold to it throughout the game.

The Buckeyes made a desperate bid in the opening minutes of the second period when Mattison, Beitner, and Colburn each registered in rapid succession.

Iowa Leads at Half

The period ended with Iowa in front 21 to 14 but Mattison cut the margin to 21 to 13 when fouled by Bastian immediately after play had been resumed.

Bastian then scored from the "hole" position in front of the basket for another open shot, but Beitner made good on free throw when fouled by Krumbholz. Colburn then made it 23 to 18 on an open shot under the basket.

After time had been called Brown put the Buckeyes in position for the lead when he went under the basket for another open shoot, cutting the Hawkeye margin 23 to 20.

From then on it was an Iowa night, however, for Krumbholz again found the net from the corner and Moffitt added two points on free throws. The Hawkeyes rebounded for a return engagement with Purdue.

JEFFERSON HIGH SCHOOL GYMNASIUM, Lafayette, Ind., Feb. 27.—Ohio State continued to hold undisturbed possession of first place in the Western Conference basketball race by trouncing Purdue here tonight, 29 to 17, before a capacity crowd of 5000 fans. The game, billed as a battle of blood, turned out as predicted. From the opening whistle until the final gun or rather, affair was one of the roughest in the history of the conference.

ay but his crafty guarding and generalship was apparent in every move the Buckeye made. The Ohio captain played a finished basketball game and despite his close guarding, he committed but one personal foul.

There wasn't a weak spot in the Ohio armor. Brown played his usual aggressive game after relieving Hinchman. Wilson looked good in his brief appearance at forward after relieving Colburn. Hile Beitner played a remarkable game especially in the second half when he operated under the handicap of having three personal fouls.

One Game Remains
Two Badgers, Winchman and McDonald had the same difficulty but neither went beyond the danger mark.

Only one more game remains on the Buckeye schedule; the contest with Indiana Monday at Bloomington. Victory in this game will give the Buckeyes an undisputed championship.
