BUCKEYES WIN, 64-35

Columbus, O., Dec. 16 [Special].—Ohio State university's basketball team swamped Wooster, last year's champion of the Ohio conference, before 2,500 here tonight, 64 to 35.

Still lacking the service of three regulars, Capt. Robert Lynch, Bob Schick, and Bill Sattler, the Buckeyes used many sophomore prospects thru-out most of the game.

Ohio State got away to a 6 to 0 lead. Frank Grenert, 6 foot 4 inch Wooster center, then tied the score on two field goals and two free throws.

Gil Mickelson, Ohio's junior forward, led the scoring with 15 points, followed by Jack McClain, sophomore center. Lineups:

bination seems to have been found in Schick, McLain, Sattler, Mees and Lynch. And with Michigan coming up in the first Big Ten game Saturday night in Ann Arbor, nothing could satisfy Olsen's sweet tooth much more.

The shooting of Lynch was the high spot of the game, along with the unexpected uncovering of a "find" in Mees. Lynch took 11 shots during his evening on the floor and six of them hit the jackpot.

Bucks Lose To Michigan

in the first few minutes but Charley Pink and Herb Brogan of the Wolverines, pulled their team to the front in a hurry and Michigan was never headed. Their lead was 26 to 18 at half time.

The Buckeyes came to life late in the final period, however, and staged a spurt which had the crowd of 8000 in a heat. With Michigan leading 36 to 30, Bill Goss and Jack McLain of Ohio, accounted for two baskets and a foul shot to pull the Bucks to within one point. They were beginning to solve the Michigan defense and gained accuracy.

The threat died at this point, however, as Michigan rose to the occasion and fought furiously for the ball. Jim Rae whirled through a beautiful hook shot, Scrappy Mike Sofiak sunk his push shot from the foul circle and when Jed Mees broke away only to miss an easy dog shot, Ohio was beaten.

Many Shots Are Missed by Purdue; Bucks Trail 25-20 At Half, Then Lose, 49-32

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Jan. 8.—(P)—A well-balanced Purdue attack practically swept Ohio State's defending champs off the court here tonight as Purdue scored its second straight Big Ten basket ball victory 49 to 32.

The Buckeyes put up a stiff battle in the first half, principally because of their sharp free throwing and Purdue's missing an amazing number of setups under the hoop.

The Boilermakers continued to miss in the second half but they got so many short attempts that their 25 to 20 half-time margin soon widened to convincing dimensions.

Center Dan Fisher with nine points, was high-point man for Purdue, but the entire Purdue team was scoring steadily.

Ohio State, which tired after the first half, was led by Forward McLain, with nine.

Both teams used 12 men in the race-horse battle.

Schick Stars As Ohio Wins From Butler

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., FEB. 3.

—John Schick pitched three field goals in the waning minutes of the game tonight to give Ohio State its third consecutive victory, a 51 to 45 conquest of Butler's Bull dogs. Schick replaced center Bill Sattler with eight minutes to go and Butler trailing, 44 to 42, and promptly drenched the Bull Dog uprising which had almost wiped out a 12 point lead taken by the Buckeyes early in the last half.

Although Schick saved the game, it was Bill Goss, an Anderson, Ind., boy and Capt. Bob Lynch who did most of the work as Ohio State took the lead after the first six minutes and never again fell back. Goss flipped in six field goals and a free throw for 13 points, being matched by Lynch's five field goals and three free throws. Line-

A touring Mexico City Y. M. C. A. basket ball team ran smack dab into another case of bad international relationship last night when a gang of Americanos from Ohio State hogtied it by a score of 56 to 33 in the Fairgrounds Coliseum.

It was the eleventh loss for the traveling Mexicans out of 18 games played north of the border. The easy win gave the Buckeyes a winning streak of four straight games and a soaring total of 176 points scored against their opponents in those four triumphs.

SOPHS SHOW WARES

Coach Harold Olsen had his sophomores on parade before the assembled 2505 crowd and the yearlings did right well on their own hook. Dick Fisher and Al Marzano drum-majored the scoring procession and boosted the Bucks out to an early first-half lead that was never closely approached by the visitors.

The Bucks held a 24-to-10 margin at the intermission and put the contest deep in ice-bags early in the final half with a deluge of baskets from all corners. The Mexicans had speed and clever ball handling; the Bucks had the height and a tremendous weight advantage. The latter settled the issue.

LYNCH ONLY REGULAR

Luis Labastida paced both teams with his 13-point total in the Y. M. C. A. lineup. Fisher had 10 points and Marzano nine for the Bucks. Captain Bob Lynch was the only Buck regular to see action.

Schick Leads Ohio State To Victory Over Chicago

CHICAGO, FEB. 10.—Ohio State's basketball team tonight easily defeated Chicago's hapless Maroons, 44 to 36 before a small crowd of 2000 here in the Midway fieldhouse. It was the Buckeyes' third Big Ten victory in five starts this season and enabled them to stay in the race for the title, which they are defending. The setback for Chicago was its fifth straight in conference play.

John Schick, elongated center, personally led the Buckeyes to victory, registering 23 points on 10 field shots and three free throws.

The game was a battle for only the first 10 minutes of play. From then on the visitors outclassed the home team in every department of play.

Chicago, first to score on a one-handed shot by bespectacled Forward Joe Stampf, held leads of 3 to 2, 5 to 4, and 7 to 6, before Gil Michelson hooked one in from the side midway in the period to give the Buckeyes a 8 to 7 lead, which they held to the finish. They led at half time, 25 to 18.

Buckeyes Get Hot

Following the intermission, the Buckeyes came back on the floor "hotter than ever" to pick up seven more points in two and one-half minutes of play, while holding the Maroons to only one.

Mickelson Top Buck Scorer; Englund of Badgers Halted

By Irvyn Scheibeck

IN A GAME as stubborn as a pair of mules meeting on a one-way bridge, Ohio State bested Wisconsin, 41 to 35, before 3330 spectators Saturday night, in the fairgrounds coliseum, to rack up its fourth Big Ten basketball victory in seven starts.

Frequent fouling, the outgrowth of tight defensive play, served to slow up the contest, which had occasional flashes of brilliance, but which in the main was rather dull. Sixteen fouls were called on the invading Badgers and the alert Ohioans capitalized on 13 of the resulting 20 charity shots. Ohio also fouled 16 times and Wisconsin made 11 of its 20 shots good for points.

Mickelson Sets Pace

If there were any particular features to the game they were the fine floor play and shooting eye of Gil Mickelson, Buckeye forward, who paced both teams in scoring with 13 points, and the individual "dog fight" waged between Jack Schick and Gene Englund, rival centers and leading scorers of both teams to date. Englund did not make a basket off Schick until late in the game, although he ran up five while arrayed against Sattler. The latter, however, matched him with three baskets of his own, two of them coming at an opportune moment late in the game when the Badgers were becoming threatening.

All but two of Mickelson's points came in the first half, most of them on rebound or pivot shots.

For the Badgers, Rundell and Epperson divided point-making honors with eight points each.

Bucks Keep Upper Hand

Save in the first minute of play, when Wisconsin went out in front on a free throw, Ohio State led all the way. The Buckeyes' greatest margin of advantage was 11 points, at 34-23 in the second half, whereas Wisconsin's closest approach to the Buckeyes came shortly after the start of the second half when the Badgers pulled up to within two points at 21-19.

Badgers Easy For Buckeyes

It was at this stage of the game that Wisconsin committed the most fouls, however, and Ohio soon built up a 30-20 lead on free throws, keeping the game safe in hand thereafter. Ohio's half-time margin was 19-14.

The loss was the fifth for Wisconsin seven conference starts. The lineups:

EVANSTON, Ill., Feb. 19.—(AP)—Scoring 33 points in the second half, Ohio State's unpredictable basket ball team defeated Northwestern tonight, 58 to 52, in the highest scoring game of the Big Ten season.

Northwestern held a slim lead until the latter part of the second half when the Buckeyes got hot and sewed up the game. Gil Mickelson, junior, and two sophomores, Bill Goss and Jack Graf, rained goals during the rally. This threesome accounted for 40 of Ohio's points.

WILDCATS TAKE LEAD

Starting from a six-six tie score, Northwestern climbed into a 17-6 advantage in the first half but the visitors reduced this margin to a mere three points at the half.

The Bucks pulled up even again midway of the second half at 39-all and then began their sensational deluge of goals that left the Wildcats far behind.

Don Clawson, sophomore who had scored only one basket in seven previous games, connected for seven field goals and two free throws to tie Mickelson for high scoring honors.

The victory gave Ohio State a record of five victories in eight league games and Northwestern with an even break in the same number of games.

Ohioans Register Sixth Big Ten Victory on Lead Gained In First Half.

COLUMBUS—(AP) — Staving off a brilliant last-half rally by Minnesota, Ohio State edged the Gophers 48 to 43 in a Big Ten basketball game before a crowd of 3,667 here last night.

Trailing 14 to 28 at halftime, Minnesota came back with a rush in the second stanza to outscore the Buckeyes, but was unable to control the ball often enough in the closing five minutes to sustain its scoring drive.

Forward Don Carlson led the second half Gopher attack, ringing up 16 of his 20 points after the intermission. High-scoring honors for Ohio State were taken by Center Bill Sattler who sparked the Bucks' first half drive with 13 of his 17 markers.

The win was Ohio's sixth in nine engagements, and the loss was Minnesota's sixth in nine conference games.

Scarlet Tossers Really Click; Score, 44-26

By EARL FLORA,
State Journal Sports Writer

Hotter than the equatorial sun, rougher than a bunch of old salts on shore leave, and as flashy as polished lightning, Ohio State's skyrocketing Buck cagers pulled an upset last night that even belittled David's upset over Goliath.

The Buckeyes didn't merely defeat Indiana's Hoosier not-so-hot-shots, they trampled them into little tiny pieces, 44 to 26, in the Fairgrounds Coliseum before a stark mad and raving assembly of 4305.

PURDUE ON TOP

And while the Bucks were soaring into a tie for second place with the Hoosiers, each with seven wins and three losses, Purdue's Boiler-makers were cinching at least a portion of the title with victory over Iowa. Ohio will have to win its remaining two games against Michigan and Indiana, and Purdue must drop its remaining pair if the Buckeyes are to gain a share of the championship.

What happened to the Bucks last night would be hard to say. If they had been injected with hourly shots of nitroglycerin they couldn't have exploded any more than they did. The Hoosiers actually looked pitiful, so useless were all of their attempts to cope with the Bucks.

In the first place, Gil Mickelson, flashy little Ohio forward, was tossing in points from everywhere but the Coliseum rafters. In the second place, a tight Buck defense had Indiana so puzzled in the second half that the desperate Hoosiers commenced taking shots from any place and every place, the result being that few of their tosses in the last period came within field-glass range of the bankboard.

for himself and the Bucks asked no quarter.

Following Huffman's goal, the Bucks caged 12 points in a row without interruption and were leading, 33 to 17, with 10 minutes of the game left. In this dozen-point spurge Lynch accounted for five, Mickelson five and Graf two.

Winding up his home floor career in a blaze of glory was Capt. Bob Lynch, who bombed the networks for 16 points on eight baskets, most of them sizzling long shots, which were devastating in their accuracy. Gil Mickelson, ball-hawking forward, spun, pivoted and whirled his way 75 five for a total of 10 points while other telling contributions in a scoring way were made by both centers, John Shick and Slat Sattler and Bill Goss, Mickelson's forward running mate.

Only three of Ohio's points came from free throws, all by Goss, the Bucks pouring 24 field baskets through the rims while Michigan was getting only 11 thanks to the vigilant guarding of Lynch, Graf and Dawson.

It was a real battle in the first half even though the Bucks were never headed after the first few minutes when Mickelson fired two shots a la the "whirling dervish" and Lynch hit a one-handed push shot after Sofiak's free throw had given the Wolves the initial advantage. Long shots by Ruehle and Sofiak and the latter's free throw tied the score at 6-all but thereafter the Bucks pulled away steadily and were running in front 22 to 16 at the intermission.

Hoosiers Top Bucks

Indiana Thumps Ohioans, 52-31, to Finish Second in Western Conference Race

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Mar. 4.—(AP)—Indiana University thumped Ohio State, 52 to 31, in the last Big Ten basket ball game of the season here tonight to take second place in the final Western Conference standing.

Purdue, the old rival that Indiana downed twice in the season, barred the Hoosiers from a first-place tie with a 34-to-31 victory over Illinois at Champaign.

Indiana finished its schedule with nine victories and three defeats in the Conference, while Purdue won 10 and lost two league games.

Tonight's triumph before 5500 fans avenged a 44-to-26 licking the Buckeyes handed the Hoosiers a week ago and was Indiana's nineteenth straight on its own floor.

Ohio State, which missed a chance for a share of second place, wound up with eight victories and four losses for third place in the loop.

Indiana, using 17 men, led throughout the game, 34 to 15 at half time.
