Dick Fisher Scores Only Two Points

EVANSTON, ILL., FEB. 22.—

Ohio State's Buckeye basketballers knocked off a tired, ragged Northwestern Wildcat cage team here tonight, 35 to 29, for their sixth Big Ten victory against four defeats.

The Purple cagers, however, held Dick Fisher, Ohio State scoring ace, to one field goal. Thus he added only two points to his total of 116, putting him well behind the conference leaders. Fisher played only about nine minutes during the second half. His lone field goal came in the first period.

The Buckeyes enjoyed a lead most of the way, forging to the front after the score was deadlocked at 7-7 early in the first half. The biggest lead the Columbus quintet had was 33 to 20, shortly after the intermission. Then the Wildcats rallied and scored nine straight points, making the score 29-33 before Miller connected for a field goal.

Northwestern outshot Ohio 70 to 56, but the Cats were having another off night in the scoring department.

The Bucks took 22 shots in the second half and sunk five, while the Purple took 30 tries from the field and registered on only eight.

Ohio State tallied 11 free throws to 13 for Northwestern.

Three Buckeyes went out on personals—Fisher, Miller and Graf. Two Wildcats went to the showers via the same route—Captain Al Butherus and Ed Baker.

The two teams played ragged ball in the first eight minutes of the opening half. Ohio State hit first for a field goal when Jack McLain sank one. Northwestern's Russ Wendland evened the count a moment later and Bud Hasse put the Wildcats ahead when he sank one of two penalty shots after Jack Graf fouled him.

Jorgenson's bucket put the Bucks ahead and Hank Clason's free throw tied the count at 4-all.

Dick Fisher's first field goal, after five attempts from the field, put Ohio in front 6 to 4. The Columbus gang added a point when Jorgenson made good on one of two free throws, the foul being called on Hasse.

Miss Easy Shots

Northwestern pulled to within a point of Ohio State when Don McCarnes, expert gunner, potted a long one. Both teams missed several set shots and finally Clason tied the score at 7-all when he put one in from the free throw line. Gecowets and Jorgensen made good on one free throw apiece as Ohio State went ahead 9 to 7. McLain hit from out yonder as Ohio led 11 to 7—biggest margin of the first half.

Bucks Are Beaten by Illini Five

Scarlet Squad Is Swamped by Illinois, 53-36

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 24.—(AP)

—Accounting for 20 points, Art Mathisen paced Illinois to a 53 to 36 Big Ten basket ball victory over Ohio State tonight, leaving the two teams tied for fourth place.

Each team has a single game to play in the league race.

Mathisen and Dick Fisher, high-scoring Buckeye forward, began the game as if it were a personal scoring duel. They scored 10 points between them before anyone else located the basket.

The lead changed hands several times in the first few minutes before Harold Shapiro put Illinois ahead to stay with two field goals midway of the first half. The Illini soon built this edge to a 21-9 margin and breezed the rest of the way.

All of Fisher's 14 points came in the first half and none of his mates could hit consistently after intermission. Johnny Drish and Vic Wukovits scored 10 points apiece as Mathisen's chief aides in running up the count.
