Bucks Win Opener from Illini

CHAMPAIGN, ILL., DEC. 15.—(AP)—Ohio State University successfully held off a last minute University of Illinois rush to take the first Big Ten basketball game of the season tonight, 50 to 46.

Before a crowd of 5640 persons, Ohio State took the lead with the first basket and never was headed, although the Illini pulled up to 46-44 with two minutes to go. The Buckeyes led at the half 26 to 16.

Forward Bob Bowen, with 18 points on seven field goals and four free throws. Arnie Risen, a center and one of three Ohio State men who fouled out during the game, was second with 17 points.

Forward Bob Doster scored 18 points to lead the Illini on six field goals and 6 free throws.

It was in the first half that Illinois failed to live up to pre-season predictions, bucketing only six of 48 tries while Ohio State snagged an even dozen out of 41.

Risen and Warren Amling and Paul Huston, both guards, fouled out of the game with five personals apiece.

Pittsburgh's Six-Game Victory Streak Ended

The Ohio State cagers ended the Pittsburgh Panthers' six-game victory streak Wednesday night by defeating the Panthers, 43-33, at Pittsburgh.

The Panthers' only other loss of the season came at the hands of the Buckeyes, with a ten-point margin.

Co-captain Nate Apple, of the Panthers, was high scorer of the game with 11 points. Jack Underman, Ohio State center, was high man for the Bucks with 10 counters.

The Panthers staged one rally after another throughout the game, keeping the score fairly close, despite the wide victory margin at the end of the contest.

Dental students had their troubles getting to the game. Panther Forward Apple arrived at the Stadium just in time for the toss-up after a 300-mile automobile ride from Bainbridge, Md., where he had been discharged from the Navy as a dental student at 2:40 p. m.

Buckeyes Jack Underman and Bob Bowen, also dental students, remained in Columbus for classes Wednesday morning. Bad weather cancelled their scheduled plane trip and they arrived by train near the close of the first half after the start of the game had been delayed a half hour.

Bucks Drop Lead With 44-39 Loss

BLOOMINGTON, IND., JAN. 19.—Ohio State's basketballers bounced out of the Big Ten basketball lead here tonight and saw their seven-game winning streak cracked when they dropped a 44-39 decision to Indiana.

Inability to connect on scoring opportunities from close range, particularly in the first half, proved costly to the Scarlet, which made only 13 baskets in 78 tries, by far its most ineffective mark of the season. On the other hand the Hoosiers clicked on 18 occasions from the court in 74 attempts.

The defeat broke a four-game streak for Ohio over the Hoosiers, who now have won 19 Conference decisions to 26 for the Buckeyes.

Herrmann's Score Timely

The turning point of the race-horse battle occurred with nine minutes to go in the second half. At this point, Ray Snyder tied the score at 34-34 with a one-handed push shot, but Norbert Herrmann, scoring his only bucket of the game, put the Hoosiers ahead for keeps when he sneaked in close for a setup shot. Johnny Wallace, who led the game's scoring with 14 markers, followed with a tip-in to increase the Hoosier margin to four. The Bucks committed four successive fouls in the next two minutes but the Hoosiers missed all of them.

Jack Underman, who led the Ohioans with 12 points, tossed in a free throw but Wallace retaliated with another basket. Dave Walker's fielder made it 43-35 with five minutes to play and Jack Herron's foul gave the winners a nine-point lead.

Underman's two charity tosses kept the Ohio hopes alive, and, when Wayne Wells drove in for a basket, it appeared the Bucks might still make it, the score standing 44-39 with three minutes to go.

However, Indiana froze the ball in much the same manner that Ohio stalled against Illinois a week ago and neither team had another open shot at the net.

Indiana refused five opportunities to shoot free throws in the waning minutes, during which Paul Huston of the Bucks and Al Kralovansky and Tom Schwartz of Indiana went out on personals.

A basket by Wallace and two fouls by Walker sent the Hoosiers on to a four point lead of 18-14 but Huston drove in for a basket and Amling shot a foul to cut Indiana's half-time advantage to 18-17.

The first five minutes of the second half saw some of the most thrilling play of the Buckeye season. Huston's two foul shots put Ohio ahead, 19-18, but Kralovansky's basket set the Hoosiers to the front and then the two quintets traded one-point leads, which had the 4100 fans in an uproar.

The lead changed hands eight times in four minutes, but after Snyder's basket made the count 32-31 in Indiana's favor, Schwartz's fielder made it 34-31 at this point, Bowen sunk a free throw and Snyder again connected to tie the score at 34-34.

Ohio committed 23 personals, its high total of the season, and the Hoosiers sunk eight fouls in 20 tries. Indiana was guilty of 16 fouls and the Scarlet connected for 13 free throws in 23 efforts. Each team employed but seven players, Underman being the only Buck to go the route. Wallace enjoyed the same distinction for the Crimson. Already Indiana high scorer for the season, he raised his yearly count to 164 points in 12 games.

Dick Wittenbraker, Hoosier guard, who collapsed in the game against Purdue Wednesday night, was withheld from the Indiana lineup.

Ohio State plays at Purdue Monday night, which may be a make-or-break battle for the Scarlet's title chances.

Victory Over Purdue By 48-38 on Last Half Rally

By JIMMY JORDAN
CHICAGO, JAN. 22 — (AP) — Once-beaten Ohio State, defending champion Iowa and twice-beaten Indiana aren't going to drop out of the Big Ten conference basketball race just yet, although Minnesota still boasts a perfect record.

Minnesota doesn't meet Ohio State, but has two meetings with Iowa and one with Indiana on its schedule.

The Buckeyes, Hoosiers and Hawkeyes proved last night they still figure they have a good chance of moving into the front as they won their conference engagements.

Indiana had the toughest assignment, but cooled red-hot Michigan, 46-43. Ohio State turned the tables on Purdue, 48-38, while Iowa had an easy time with Chicago, winning 58-32. Northwestern, the only other conference team active, edged out Great Lakes, 44-42, in a non-conference game.

Chicago proved stubborn for the title-defending Iowans, but with Dick Ives, 1945 conference-scoring leader, bagging 14 points, the Hawkeyes broke away from a 5-5 tie early in the game and swept past what had been a tight Maroon defense the first eight minutes of the second half.

Indiana had a bad second half with Michigan. Off to a 23-17 lead at the half, the Hoosiers—only team to defeat Ohio State and Iowa in conference play—had to beat off a determined Wolverine rally in the last period to edge out their victory.

Boilermakers Stubborn

Ohio State had to turn on the heat in the last half to move into a commanding lead over Purdue. The Boilermakers, who beat Indiana last week, dropped behind early in the game, then rallied near the end of the half to cut the Buckeyes' margin to 23-21 at the intermission.

In the last half long Jack Underman sparked an attack that pulled the Buckeyes far enough in front so they could coast home. Underman scored 19 points to pace Ohio State to its fifth conference victory.

Two free throws in the last three minutes, by Max Morris and Chuck Tourek, proved the difference as Northwestern edged out Great Lakes. The score was tied six times in the last half.

Wolves Lead From Start; Ray Snyder Leads Bucks With 14

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Jan. 26. —Ohio State's chances for the Big Ten basketball championship were seriously crippled tonight when the Buckeyes lost their second game of the season to underdog Michigan tonight, 62 to 46.

Michigan pushed into an early lead and held an advantage all the way to run up its fourth victory in eight games this season.

Ohio State rallied late in the first half to cut the Wolverines' lead to only four points, but then faded away, trailing 27 to 21 at the halftime. The Buckeyes' usually smooth play was marred by poor ball handling while Michigan, played one of its best games of the season with three players scoring 12 points or more.

Northwestern at Ohio State.
Minnesota at Iowa.
Wisconsin at Purdue.

Mullaney Leads

John Mullaney, Michigan guard, led the scoring with 18 points. Next was Forward Bob Harrison with 15 points followed by Center Glenn Selbo with 12.

Ray Snyder, Ohio State forward, led his teammates with 14 points.

Tonight's victory for Michigan marked a complete reversal of form over a previous meeting of the two teams. Ohio State won, 57 to 40, over the Wolverines at Columbus late in December.

Home Floor Jinx

Ohio was a heavy favorite going into the game, but the visitors failed to overcome a "jinx" that has worked on every home foe for the Wolves but one—Indiana this season. Indiana has been the only team to defeat Michigan on the home court, although the Wolverines have been a poor road team.

Tonight's game was the fourth straight on the road for the Ohioans, who return home to meet Northwestern Monday night.

Cagers Lose

LANSING, MICH., Feb. 16.—A rejuvenated Michigan State basketball team tonight walloped Ohio State, 64 to 41, before 8000 fans.

Tonight's game left the Buckeyes with a record of 12 wins and four losses, the Spartans with a record of 10 victories and eight defeats.

Ohio State got off to a five-point lead but Michigan State came back strongly and knotted the count at seven-all in seven minutes. Then two looping long shots by Guard Ollie White put the Spartans ahead for the rest of the game.

Inability to control the rebounds led to Ohio's downfall as Big Bill Krall and Les Wulf fought off the Buckeyes under both bankboards.

White scored 21 points to pace the Spartans as they avenged an early season 62 to 42 loss suffered at Columbus at the hands of the Bucks.

Leading the Ohioans was Bob Bowen, who registered 13 points.

Buckeyes Give Maroon 12th Defeat

OSU Wins, 53-31;
Tonight They Play
Northwestern

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Ohio State University made the University of Chicago's basketball team bow in defeat last night to the tune of 53-31 as the Maroons closed their season after losing 12 games. Last night's battering was the Chicagoans' 60th straight defeat in Big Ten competition.

For the first 10 minutes the Maroons had reason to be optimistic, holding a 11-9 lead, but within four minutes more the Buckeyes had the edge, 14-13, after tying the score twice.

From then on Ohio State had a safe lead. They were ahead, 24 to 13, at halftime, after a six-minute flurry that netted them 10 points.

Last night's game brought Ohio State's total wins to nine out of 11 conference games played this season. Tonight the Ohioans play Northwestern, with a chance for the title if Iowa loses to Illinois this evening. This is Ohio State's last game of the season; Iowa has two more to play after tonight.

High point man in the University of Chicago game was Bowen, Ohio State forward, with 18 points. He shot eight field goals before he was removed in the second half.

CHICAGO, FEB. 23—Playing before America's largest basketball crowd in history, 22,822, wildly-cheering fans—hundreds of them from Ohio—the Scarlet basketball quintet roared into first place in the Western Conference here tonight by turning back Northwestern, 53-46.

The sensational victory, coupled with Iowa's loss to Illinois, gave the smooth-playing Bucks a season's conference record of 10 victories and two defeats, also their mark of a year ago. It gave them undisputed possession of first place and assured them of at least a tie. Iowa, with a record of 8-2 has Minnesota and Indiana to play.

The Ohio State Quintet, playing far and away its best game of the season, held leads ranging up to 13 points in the first half, an advantage sorely needed before the final gun.

Morris Collared

Max Morris, leading Big 10 scorer was held to eight points by the sharp-eyed Paul Huston and rugged Warren Amling. Huston guarded Morris in the first half and Amling in the second.

Captain Ray Snyder, on several occasions, tossed the Purple into confusion as he shot with either hand, while driving into the basket, while Bobby Bowen potted the mesh from outside the foul circle on six occasions.

Jack Underman played a spectacular game on defense, holding Leroy King, string bean opponent, to two baskets while picking up five himself.

Bowen topped all scorers with 17 points.

Foul shooting ability helped the Buckeyes, just as it did when the Wildcats were beaten in Columbus, 47 to 41. The Bucks made 15 fouls in 21 tries. The Cats sunk six and missed 10.

After Huston opened the game with a basket, Wheeler tied the score, but Morris' basket was matched by a foul by Snyder and another by Bowen. Bowen's second gratis shot put the Bucks ahead. After Wheeler tied the count with a foul, Underman made two straight hook buckets for a 9-5 Ohio lead. Huston, Snyder, Bowen and Underman combined to provide Ohio with a 16-5 advantage.

Wheeler's fielder was matched by Bowen's long shot but Snyder added two fouls for a 20-7 lead, widest of the game. The Wildcats picked up three points at the 10-minute mark but baskets by Bowen and Snyder and Underman's foul made it 25 to 10 and it began to look like a breeze.

However, the Wildcats regained their shooting eye and King's two tip in baskets were followed by Wheeler's fielder, which matched Bowen's long one.

Ohio's 28-17 lead then dwindled to 30-24 with Tourek, Wheeler and Lofgren doing the damage. With the count 28-24, Underman scored a hook shot, but King's foul was followed by Lofgren's fielder and the half ended with the Bucks clinging to a 30-27 margin.

Tourek opened the second half with a basket but it was matched by Underman. After Morris tied the score at 33-33, Lofgren put the Cats ahead for their only lead, but Huston tied it at 35-35 with another line drive shot. Ohio then went ahead to stay on a basket by Amling. King's foul cut the margin to one point, but the Ohioans breathed easier thereafter.

Snyder and Amling contributed successive baskets, and, with nine minutes to go, Morris and Snyder made field goals. With four minutes to go, baskets by Bowen and Huston gave Ohio a 47-40 lead. Tourek and Wheeler shot field goals as against Huston's foul. But this 48-44 margin was the closest of the remaining time. Bowen and Huston shot four successive fouls—two each—and then a long shot by McTaggart with 10 seconds to go made it 52-46. After time had expired, Huston made good on a foul and the Ohio end of the vast throng put up a terrific din.

Turn Back Harvard In First Round

NYU Violets, 57-49

NEW YORK, March 22.—It will be Ohio State's Buckeyes against the North Carolina Tarheels tomorrow night for the NCAA Eastern District basketball championship.

The Big Ten championship Scarlet and Gray aggregation earned the final berth in the district tournament by handing the Crimson of Harvard a 46-38 pasting in Madison Square Garden last night.

North Carolina advanced to the district finals by turning back favored New York University by a 57-49 count in the finale of the double bill on the Garden court.

Ohio State, although winning by a comfortable margin, did not flash the form it showed against Northwestern in the final game of the regular season. Harvard was even less impressive.

Both teams dropped the ball, kicked it out of bounds, made bad passes and missed easy shots. Ohio State's height proved to be the decisive factor and six-foot, six-inch Jack Underman led the individual scoring column with 14 points.

A total of 44 fouls was called as both teams elected to stand still and whack at moving opponents.

John Dillon was the star of the North Carolina quintet. He had a hook shot that couldn't miss. He tallied 15 points before going out on fouls in the last 10 minutes. Every one of his dead-center shots came at a time when it hurt NYU the most.

Saturday night's winner will meet the Western Regional champion—which is being decided at Kansas City—for the NCAA title next Tuesday night in Madison Square Garden.

NEW YORK, MARCH 23—After Bob Paxton had rimmed a long shot with 10 seconds of regulation time remaining to tie Ohio State, 54-all, the North Carolina Tarheels came back to outscore the Buckeyes, 6-3, in the five-minute overtime period and defeat the Big Ten champions, 57-54, tonight for the Eastern Regional NCAA basketball championship at Madison Square Garden.

The two teams played for four minutes and 20 seconds without a score and then Dillon missed two fouls. Another minute went by before McKinney caged a follow-up, which was followed by Underman's foul. Dillon's foul made it 1-0. After nine minutes of play, the count remained unchanged, when Jordan caged a foul. The Bucks missed their first 20 shots before Jack Underman connected from under the basket. He was fouled on the shot by McKinney and Jack made it good for a 6-4 count. Underman came right back with a bucket to tie the score, but a long one by Bill White put the Tarheels ahead again. McKinney outmaneuvered Underman for one from under the bucket to put North Carolina ahead 6-6. Jordan's foul made it 11-6. White dribbled in for a short one and Jordan did likewise for a 15-6 count. Anderson potted one from the side court, but Bowen came right back with two fouls for a 7-8 count. Snyder was fouled by Paxton and missed, but Huston followed it with a basket and a 7-10 count. Paxton fouled Bowen while he was dribbling in and Bob again made good on both of them. Four minutes remained in the half at this point.

Paxton caging a fielder but Underman sunk a foul when McKinney made his third infraction. Bowen's fifth straight foul made it 19-14 and then, after Huston missed a foul, Underman hooked for a 19-16 tally. At this point the Bucks had sunk 10 fouls in 12 tries.

Snyder caged a long basket and the Bucks seemed to have a shot at the crowd's fancy. When Huston put through one of his drive shots, the crowd went wild as the Scarlet moved in front 20-19. Huston was fouled with eight seconds to go but missed both shots.

During the first half the Bucks made only five baskets in 38 shots while the Tarheels caged eight in 36.

Underman got the tip as the second half opened and caged a fielder, but Jordan came right back to make the count 22-21. Snyder then laid one up for a 24-21 tally. McKinney made his fourth foul and Underman missed the try. Paxton's basket made it 24-23.

Dillon's foul made it 24-all, but Bowen dropped in a set shot to give the Bucks a 26-24 lead. Underman tipped one in for a four-point lead but Dillon looped one to cut the Bucks' margin to two points. Snyder dribbled in for a pretty left-handed shot and Ohio again enjoyed a four-point advantage.

Dillon's foul was more than matched by goals by Bowen and Underman. The crowd went wild at this point as the underdog Scarlet enjoyed a 34-27 lead.

McKinney came back in the game and tipped one in to put the margin to five markers. Then he repeated and added a foul to make the score 34 to 32. Snyder was fouled while shooting and made one of the two tries. A goal by Thorne made the count 35 to 34.

McKinney made his fifth personal foul trying to stop Snyder's basket and the Buckeye captain made both tries for a 37-34 lead. Jordan's basket followed but he committed a foul and Huston made both of them for a 39-36 advantage. With seven minutes and 50 seconds remaining, Paxton connected but was matched by Huston. Underman added a foul but Dillon hit from under the bucket. Bowen followed up his own miss for a basket.

Anderson came back with one, but Underman made a hook shot for a 46-42 count with five minutes to go. Underman then tipped one in but White sunk two fouls. With four minutes to go, Paxton dropped in a fielder and was fouled by Amling. He missed the free try and then Snyder took a pass from Bowen and caged a fielder. Dillon made a foul and then Amling dribbled in for a basket. White's foul made the count 52 to 48. Dillon had a chance to shoot two fouls and made one of them. Underman caged a free throw but Amling committed his fifth foul as Dillon shot a basket. Dillon then made one foul. Huston came back with one but committed his fifth foul with 90 seconds to go. North Carolina waived the foul and Wells missed a free throw. Paxton's long shot tied the score.

Wells made a foul but it was not allowed as one of the Ohio players was in the circle. Jordan sunk a foul for the Tarheels and then Anderson hit from the floor. Underman retaliated and then Dillon hit for a 59-56 score with two minutes left. Bowen's foul shot cut the margin to two points at 59-57 and then Bowen fouled White, who missed the shot. Jordan sunk a foul after the game ended for a three point margin.

Ohio State Takes Third Place, Trouncing California, 63 to 45

at Heels, Winners of Eastern Regional Tourney, Encounter Aggies, Western Court Kingpins, in Final for Championship Before Sellout Crowd

By Everett B. Morris

Oklahoma A. & M., representing the West, and North Carolina, survivor of the Eastern eliminations, met in Madison Square Garden last night in the final play-off for the N. C. A. A. basketball championship before a sellout crowd of more than 18,000 patrons.

The Aggies, rulers of the college basketball world in 1945, were seeking their second N. C. A. A. crown. It was North Carolina's first appearance in the title round.

Midwest met Far West in the battle between beaten sectional finalists for third place in the national ranking, Ohio State, Western Conference leader, and California, boss of the Pacific Coast conference, were the contestants.

The Buckeyes, breaking the game dead open with spurts of ten, eight and six points in the third quarter, trounced the Golden Bears, 63 to 45.

Mervin LaFaille, California's rugged forward, led the scorers with twenty-two points, three more than Ohio's Jack Underman. The Californians seemed tense and uncertain of themselves in the opening stages of the game and the Buckeyes, with Snyder, Huston and Bowen taking advantage of the Bears' defensive lapses, rushed to an 8-to-1 lead.

California Ties Score

Then the Pacific Coast champions began to hit with their one- and push shots and at eight minutes the score was tied at 14-14. Wolfe's left-hander put the Bears ahead a few seconds later for the first time.

Thereafter, with both teams giving hard when they got the ball, it was give and take with the lead shifting with nearly every shot. The Buckeyes went ahead, 17-14, just before the half-time buzzer on two free throws by Snyder.

There were four ties in the period and the lead swapped ownership eight times. After big Jim Smith, California center, was benched to cool him off after making four fouls in nine minutes, Ohio controlled the rebounds at both ends of the court and this advantage stood the Buckeyes in good stead in the face of California's driving attack in which LaFaille and Wolfe had been the standouts.

Underman Paces Drive

The Buckeyes, hitting with everything they threw at the target for three minutes, galloped into a 36-to-24 advantage. In this stretch, topped off by a ten-point spree, Underman shot four field goals before California could get Smith, hampered by his four fouls, out of three.

LaFaille got California back into the game with his one-hand shooting, but then Snyder and Underman got four goals in less than two minutes and the Bears were thirteen points behind. At the end of the third quarter Ohio State was leading, 52 to 36. The Buckeyes, blazing hot, had made thirty points in ten minutes.

With four minutes to go the pace had slackened, but Ohio was in full control of the game with a 59-to-41 lead. So the Buckeyes took out Snyder and Underman, who had scored ten and nineteen points, respectively. Each had also passed off for three baskets.
